Enactments repealed

[Repealed]

An Act to consolidate and amend certain enactments of the Parliament of New Zealand relating to the University of Canterbury

Title: amended, on 1 January 1987, pursuant to section 29(2) of the Constitution Act 1986 (1986 No 114).

1 Short Title and commencement

- (1) This Act may be cited as the University of Canterbury Act 1961.
- (2) This Act shall come into force on 1 January 1962.

2 Interpretation

- (1) In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,— assisted student means an international student who is in New Zealand to study under an assistance programme administered by the New Zealand Government the Council means the Council of the University of Canterbury constituted in accordance with subpart 3 of Part 4 of the Education and Training Act 2020

domestic student means a person who is not an international student exempt student means an international student who—

- (a) is in New Zealand to study under an exchange programme approved by the New Zealand Government; or
- (b) is for the time being exempted under section 48B(2)

international student means a person who is not a New Zealand citizen and is—

- (a) a person to whom section 15 or 16 of the Immigration Act 2009 applies; or
- (b) a person obliged by or under that Act or any other enactment to leave New Zealand immediately or within a specified time; or
- (c) treated for the purposes of that Act as being unlawfully in New Zealand lecturer means a member of the staff of the University of Canterbury who is in terms of his appointment an associate professor, a reader, a senior lecturer, or a lecturer of the university; and includes such other persons and classes of persons as the Council from time to time determines

Minister means the Minister of the Crown for the time being responsible for the administration of this Act professor means a professor of the University of Canterbury; but does not include an associate professor

the Registrar means the Registrar of the University of Canterbury

Secretary means the chief executive of the Ministry of Education the university means the University of Canterbury constituted under this Act.

- (2) In the absence of proof to the contrary,—

- (a) a certificate signed by the chief executive of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Trade that on a specified day, or for a specified period, a specified person was or was not, or will or will not be in New Zealand to study under an assistance programme administered by the New Zealand Government; or

- (b) a certificate signed by the Secretary that on a specified day, or for a specified period, a specified person was or was not, or will or will not be in New Zealand to study under an exchange programme approved by the New Zealand Government,— is, for the purposes of subsection (1), conclusive evidence of the matter certified; and judicial notice shall be taken of the signature on any such certificate of the chief executive or (as the case may be) the Secretary.
