The Parliament of New Zealand enacts as follows:1 Title

This Act is the Electoral (Administration) Amendment Act 2010.

2 Commencement

(1) The following provisions come into force on 1 October 2010:

- (a) the provisions in subpart 2 of Part 1;
- (b) the provisions in subpart 2 of Part 2.

(2) The rest of this Act comes into force on the day after the date on which it receives the Royal assent.

3 Principal Act amended

This Act amends the Electoral Act 1993.

Part 1 Amendments to principal Act

Subpart 1—Amendments coming into force on day after Royal assent

4 New sections 4B to 4J inserted

The following sections are inserted after section 4A:

“4B Electoral Commission

- “(1) This section establishes the Electoral Commission.
- “(2) The Electoral Commission is a Crown entity for the purposes of section 7 of the Crown Entities Act 2004.
- “(3) The Crown Entities Act 2004 applies to the Electoral Commission except to the extent that this Act expressly provides otherwise.
- “(4) The Electoral Commission established by subsection (1) is not the same body as the Electoral Commission established by section 4.

“4C Objective

The objective of the Electoral Commission established by section 4B is to administer the electoral system impartially, efficiently, effectively, and in a way that—

- “(a) facilitates participation in parliamentary democracy; and
- “(b) promotes understanding of the electoral system and associated matters; and
- “(c) maintains confidence in the administration of the electoral system.

“4D Membership of Electoral Commission

- “(1) The Governor-General, on the recommendation of the House of Representatives, must appoint 3 members of the Electoral Commission established by section 4B as follows:
 - “(a) 1 member as the Chief Electoral Officer; and
 - “(b) 1 member as the chairperson; and
 - “(c) 1 member as the deputy chairperson.

- “(2) The member appointed as the Chief Electoral Officer under subsection (1)(a) is the chief executive of the Electoral Commission.
- “(3) The members of the Electoral Commission are the board for the purposes of the Crown Entities Act 2004.
- “(4) Subsection (1) applies despite—
 - “(a) section 28(1)(b) of the Crown Entities Act 2004; and
 - “(b) clause 1(2) of Schedule 5 of the Crown Entities Act 2004.

“4E Appointment of Judge as member not to affect tenure, etc

The appointment of a Judge as a member of the board of the Electoral Commission established by section 4B does not affect the Judge’s tenure of his or her judicial office or the Judge’s rank, title, status, precedence, salary, annual or other allowances, or other rights or privileges as a Judge (including those in relation to superannuation) and, for all purposes, the Judge’s services as a member must be taken to be service as a Judge.

“4F Resignation of member

- “(1) A member of the Electoral Commission established by section 4B may resign from office by written notice to the Governor-General (with a copy to the Electoral Commission) signed by the member.
- “(2) The resignation is effective when the Governor-General receives the notice or at any later time specified in the notice.
- “(3) This section applies despite section 44 of the Crown Entities Act 2004.

“Compare: 1988 No 2 s 5C

“4G Power to remove or suspend members

- “(1) Section 42 of the Crown Entities Act 2004 applies to any member of the Electoral Commission established by section 4B who is a Judge.
- “(2) Section 39(1) of the Crown Entities Act 2004 does not apply to any member.

“(3) Instead, any member who is not a Judge may be removed for just cause by the Governor-General acting upon an address from the House of Representatives.

“(4) Just cause has the same meaning as in section 40 of the Crown Entities Act 2004.

“Compare: 1988 No 2 s 6

“4H Filling of vacancy

“(1) If a vacancy occurs in the membership of the Electoral Commission established by section 4B, the Governor-General, on the recommendation of the House of Representatives, may appoint a successor.

“(2) Despite subsection (1), if the vacancy exists at the close of a session, or the vacancy occurs while Parliament is not in session, and the House of Representatives has not recommended an appointment to fill the vacancy, the Governor-General in Council may appoint a successor at any time before the commencement of the next session of Parliament.

“(3) An appointment made under subsection (2) lapses, and the office again becomes vacant, unless the appointment is confirmed by the House of Representatives before the end of the 24th sitting day following the date of the appointment.

“Compare: 1988 No 2 s 7

“4I Deputy Electoral Commissioners

“(1) The Electoral Commission established by section 4B may, by written notice, appoint an electoral official to be the deputy for an Electoral Commissioner.

“(2) The persons described in section 30(2) of the Crown Entities Act 2004 are disqualified from being appointed as Deputy Electoral Commissioners.

“(3) The notice of appointment must—

“(a) state the date on which the appointment takes effect, which must not be earlier than the date on which the notice is received; and

“(b) state the term of the appointment; and

- “(c) be published by the Electoral Commission in the Gazette as soon as practicable after the appointment is made.
- “(4) If an Electoral Commissioner becomes incapable of performing his or her functions or duties or exercising his or her powers by reason of illness, absence, or other sufficient cause, the functions, duties, and powers of that Electoral Commissioner may be performed and exercised by his or her deputy.
- “(5) Despite subsection (4), a Deputy Electoral Commissioner—
 - “(a) must not act as chairperson or deputy chairperson of the board of the Electoral Commission; and
 - “(b) is not eligible to be appointed by the board of the Electoral Commission as a temporary deputy chairperson under clause 5 of Schedule 5 of the Crown Entities Act 2004.
- “(6) The Electoral Commission may, at any time, revoke the appointment of any deputy.
- “(7) A Deputy Electoral Commissioner is a public servant for the purposes of sections 28(2)(f) and 80(3)(a)(i).
- “(8) In subsection (1), electoral official means any person that the Electoral Commission established by section 4B employs or engages for the purpose of assisting with the performance of its functions.

“4J Proceedings of Electoral Commission

The provisions of Schedule 1 apply to the Electoral Commission established by section 4B and to its proceedings.”

Subpart 2—Amendments coming into force on 1 October 2010*5 Interpretation

- (1) Section 3(1) is amended by repealing the definition of Electoral Commission and substituting the following definition:
“Electoral Commission means the Electoral Commission established by section 4B”.

(2) Section 3(1) is amended by repealing the definition of Electoral Commissioner or Commissioner and substituting the following definition:

“Electoral Commissioner or Commissioner means a member of the Electoral Commission”.

(3) Section 3(1) is amended by repealing the definition of electoral official and substituting the following definition:

“electoral official means any person that the Electoral Commission employs or engages for the purpose of assisting with the performance of its functions”.

(4) Paragraph (b)(iii) of the definition of public servant in section 3(1) is amended by omitting “; but” and substituting “; and”.

(5) The definition of public servant in section 3(1) is amended by inserting the following paragraphs after paragraph (b):

“(ba) includes an electoral official; but

“(bb) does not include an electoral official who has been appointed as a Deputy Electoral Commissioner or Returning Officer; and”.

6 Sections 4 and 4A repealed

Sections 4 and 4A are repealed.

7 New sections 5 to 9 substituted

Sections 5 to 9 are repealed and the following sections substituted:

“5 Functions

The functions of the Electoral Commission are to—

“(a) carry the provisions of this Act (except those of Part 5) into effect;

“(b) carry out duties in relation to parliamentary election programmes that are prescribed by Part 6 of the Broadcasting Act 1989;

“(c) promote public awareness of electoral matters by means of the conduct of education and information programmes or by other means;

“(d) consider and report to the Minister or to the House of Representatives on electoral matters referred to the Electoral Commission by the Minister or the House of Representatives:

- “(e) make available information to assist parties, candidates, and others to meet their statutory obligations in respect of electoral matters administered by the Electoral Commission;
- “(f) carry out any other functions or duties conferred on the Electoral Commission by or under any other enactment.

“6 Powers of Electoral Commission

- “(1) The Electoral Commission may, if it considers that it is necessary for the proper discharge of its functions,—
 - “(a) initiate, sponsor, and carry out any studies or research;
 - “(b) make any inquiries;
 - “(c) consult with any persons or classes of persons;
 - “(d) publicise, in any manner that it thinks fit, any parts of its work;
 - “(e) provide information and advice on any matter—
 - “(i) to the Minister for the Minister’s consideration;
 - “(ii) to the Minister for tabling in the House of Representatives;
 - “(f) request advice, assistance, and information from any government department or any State enterprise as defined in section 2 of the State-Owned Enterprises Act 1986.
- “(2) Subsection (1) does not limit sections 16 and 17 of the Crown Entities Act 2004.
- “(3) If the Electoral Commission provides any information or advice to the Minister under subsection (1)(e)(ii), the Minister must present the information or advice to the House of Representatives within 5 working days after receiving it or, if Parliament is not in session, as soon as possible after the commencement of the next session of Parliament.

“7 Independence

The Electoral Commission must act independently in performing its statutory functions and duties, and exercising its statutory powers, under—

- “(a) this Act; and

“(b) any other enactment that expressly provides for the functions, duties, or powers of the Electoral Commission (other than the Crown Entities Act 2004).

“8 Electoral Commission must report on general election

“(1) The Electoral Commission must, within 6 months of the return of the writ after a general election, report in writing to the Minister on the administration of that election, including—

- “(a) the services provided to electors to facilitate voting; and
- “(b) enrolment and voting statistics; and
- “(c) any substantive issue arising during the course of the election; and
- “(d) any changes that are necessary or desirable in respect of—
- “(i) administration processes or practices; or
- “(ii) this Act or any other law; and “(e) any matter that the Minister of Justice asks the Electoral Commission to address; and “(f) any other matter that the Electoral Commission considers relevant.

“(2) The Minister must present any report received under subsection (1) to the House of Representatives within 5 working days after receiving it or, if Parliament is not in session, as soon as possible after the commencement of the next session of Parliament.

“(3) The Electoral Commission must publish any report made under subsection (1) as soon as practicable after it has been presented to the House of Representatives, but in any case not later than 10 working days after the report is received by the Minister.

“9 Electoral Commission may delegate functions, duties, or powers to non-employees

In addition to the persons listed in section 73(1) of the Crown Entities Act 2004, the Electoral Commission may delegate any of its functions, duties, or powers, either generally or specifically, to any electoral official who is engaged by (rather than employed by) the Electoral Commission.”

8 Sections 11A, 11B, 14, and 18 to 20 repealed
Sections 11A, 11B, 14, and 18 to 20 are repealed.9 New sections 20C to 20CC substituted
Section 20C is repealed and the following sections are substituted:“20C Returning Officers may delegate functions, duties, or powers

A Returning Officer may delegate any of his or her functions, duties, or powers, except this power of delegation, to another electoral official.

“20CA Powers of delegate

- “(1) An electoral official to whom any functions, duties, or powers of a Returning Officer are delegated may, unless the delegation provides otherwise, perform the function or duty or exercise the power in the same manner, subject to the same restrictions, and with the same effect as if the electoral official were the Returning Officer.
- “(2) An electoral official who purports to perform a function or duty or exercise a power under a delegation from a Returning Officer is, in the absence of proof to the contrary, presumed to do so in accordance with the terms of that delegation.

“Compare: 2004 No 115 s 74

“20CB Effect of delegation on Returning Officer

No delegation under section 20C—

- “(a) affects or prevents the performance of any function or duty or the exercise of any power by the Returning Officer; or
- “(b) affects the responsibility of the Returning Officer for the actions of any electoral official acting under the delegation; or
- “(c) is affected by any change in the person appointed as Returning Officer.

“Compare: 2004 No 115 s 75

“20CC Revocation of delegations

A delegation under section 20C may be revoked at will by—

“(a) the Returning Officer by written notice to the electoral official; or “(b) any other method provided for in the delegation.

“Compare: 2004 No 115 s 76”.

10 Section 24 repealed

Section 24 is repealed.

11 New section 47A inserted

The following section is inserted after section 47:

“47A Certain persons disqualified from candidacy

The following persons are not qualified to be a candidate or to be elected as a member of Parliament:

“(a) an Electoral Commissioner:

“(b) a Deputy Electoral Commissioner:

“(c) a Returning Officer.”

12 Offence for public servant to sit

(1) The heading to section 48 is amended by inserting “or Returning Officer” after “public servant”.

(2) Section 48 is amended by inserting “or having been appointed as a Returning Officer” after “having become a public servant”.

13 How vacancies created

Section 55(1) is amended by inserting the following paragraph after paragraph (e):

“(ea) if he or she is appointed as a Returning Officer; or”.

14 Other amendments to principal Act

The principal Act is amended in the manner set out in Schedule 1.

Part 2

Consequential amendments and transitional provisions

15 Interpretation

In this Part, unless the context requires otherwise,— existing Chief Electoral Officer means the Chief Electoral Officer appointed under section 18 of the principal Act existing Electoral Commission means the Electoral Commission established by section 4 of the principal Act

new Electoral Commission means the Electoral Commission established by section 4B of the principal Act as inserted by section 4 of this Act previous employer, in relation to a transferred employee, means the employer of that employee immediately before 1 October 2010 transferred employee means a person who,—

- (a) immediately before 1 October 2010, was employed by the Ministry of Justice or the existing Electoral Commission; and
- (b) is transferred to the new Electoral Commission under section 20 or 23.

Subpart 1—Provisions coming into force on day after Royal assent

16 New Electoral Commission may perform certain functions before 1 October 2010

Until the close of 30 September 2010, the new Electoral Commission may perform only those functions that are necessary or desirable to bring, or in connection with bringing, the principal Act as amended by this Act into operation.

17 Statement of intent

The existing Electoral Commission is not required to produce a statement of intent for the financial year commencing 1 July 2010.

18 References to Electoral Commission

(1) Until the close of 30 September 2010, any reference to the Electoral Commission—

- (a) in sections 4B to 4J of the principal Act must be read as a reference to the Electoral Commission established by section 4B of the principal Act; and
- (b) in the following enactments must be read as a reference to both the Electoral Commission established by section 4 of the principal Act and the Electoral Commission established by section 4B of the principal Act:
 - (i) Schedule 1 of the Crown Entities Act 2004;
 - (ii) Part 2 of Schedule 1 of the Ombudsmen Act 1975;
 - (iii) Schedule 4 of the Remuneration Authority Act 1977; and
- (c) in any other enactment must be read as a reference to the Electoral Commission established by section 4 of the principal Act.

(2) On and from 1 October 2010, any reference to the Electoral Commission in any enactment must be read as a reference to the Electoral Commission established by section 4B of the principal Act.

19 Assets and liabilities of existing Electoral Commission

On 1 October 2010, all assets, records, liabilities, and debts of the existing Electoral Commission vest in the new Electoral Commission.

20 Employees of existing Electoral Commission

(1) On 1 October 2010, all employees of the existing Electoral Commission are transferred to the new Electoral Commission.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to any employee who does not consent to being transferred.

21 References to Chief Electoral Officer

(1) Until the close of 30 September 2010, any reference to the Chief Electoral Officer, other than a reference in section 4D of the principal Act, must be read as a reference to the Chief Electoral Officer appointed under section 18 of the principal Act.

(2) On and from 1 October 2010,—

- (a) the references to the Chief Electoral Officer in sections 28(2)(c) and 33(4) of the principal Act must be read as references to the Chief Electoral Officer appointed under section 4D(1)(a) of the principal Act; and
- (b) any other reference to the Chief Electoral Officer in any enactment must be read as a reference to the Electoral Commission established by section 4B of the principal Act.

22 Assets and liabilities of Chief Electoral Office

(1) The Secretary for Justice must identify all assets, records, liabilities, and debts of the Ministry of Justice that, immediately before 1 October 2010, are assets, records, liabilities, and debts used or incurred by the Chief Electoral Office of the Ministry of Justice.

(2) On 1 October 2010, the assets, records, liabilities, and debts identified by the Secretary for Justice under subsection (1) vest in the new Electoral Commission.

23 Employees of Ministry of Justice

(1) The Secretary for Justice must identify all permanent employees of the Ministry of Justice who, immediately before 1 October 2010, are appointed to positions within the Chief Electoral Office of the Ministry of Justice.

(2) On 1 October 2010, the employees identified by the Secretary for Justice under subsection (1) are transferred to the new Electoral Commission.

(3) Subsection (2) does not apply to—

- (a) the existing Chief Electoral Officer; or
- (b) any person appointed as Deputy Chief Electoral Officer under section 19 of the principal Act; or
- (c) any employee who does not consent to being transferred.

24 Terms and conditions of transferred employees

(1) The employment of a transferred employee must be on terms and conditions no less favourable to the transferred employee than those applying to the employee immediately before 1 October 2010.

(2) Subsection (1)—

- (a) continues to apply to the terms and conditions of employment of a transferred employee until those terms and conditions are varied by agreement between the transferred employee and the new Electoral Commission; but
- (b) does not apply to a transferred employee who receives any subsequent appointment with the new Electoral Commission.

25 Continuity of employment

(1) Every transferred employee becomes an employee of the new Electoral Commission on 1 October 2010.

(2) However, for the purposes of this Act and every enactment, law, determination, contract, and agreement relating to the employment of the transferred employee,—

- (a) the contract of employment of that employee is deemed to have been unbroken; and
- (b) that employee's period of service with his or her previous employer, and every other period of service of that employee that is recognised as continuous service by his or her previous employer, is deemed to have been a period of service with the new Electoral Commission.

26 Restriction of compensation for technical redundancy

(1) An employee of the existing Electoral Commission or the Ministry of Justice is not entitled to receive any payment or other benefit from the existing Electoral Commission or the Ministry of Justice on the ground that his or her position with that employer has ceased to exist if—

- (a) the position ceases to exist as a result of amendments made by this Act; and
- (b) in connection with the transfer of employees under this Act,—

- (i) the transfer of the employee would result in substantially equivalent employment in the new Electoral Commission (whether or not the employee consents to the transfer); or
- (ii) the employee consents to a transfer that will result in other employment in the new Electoral Commission.

(2) Substantially equivalent employment to the employee's employment with his or her previous employer is employment in the new Electoral Commission that is—

- (a) in substantially the same position; and
- (b) on terms and conditions of employment that are no less favourable than those that apply to the employee immediately before the offer of equivalent employment (including any service-related, redundancy, and superannuation conditions); and
- (c) on terms that treat the period of service with the previous employer (and any other service recognised by the previous employer as continuous service) as if it were continuous service with the new Electoral Commission.

27 Consequential amendments

The principal Act is amended in the manner set out in Part 1 of Schedule 2.

Subpart 2—Provisions coming into force on 1 October 2010

28 Existing Electoral Commission disestablished

- (1) The existing Electoral Commission is disestablished.
- (2) Any member of the existing Electoral Commission holding office under section 8(1)(a) or (b) of the principal Act (as in force immediately before its repeal by section 7 of this Act) ceases to hold office.
- (3) Any appointment of a member of the existing Electoral Commission made under section 8(1)(c) or (d) of the principal Act (as in force immediately before its repeal by section 7 of this Act) is revoked.

(4) Any appointment of a deputy of a member of the existing Electoral Commission made under section 11A(2) of the principal Act (as in force immediately before its repeal by section 8 of this Act) is revoked.

29 Appointment of existing Chief Electoral Officer revoked
The appointment of the existing Chief Electoral Officer is revoked.

30 Enforcement of existing rights
(1) This section applies to—
(a) any matter or thing commenced under any enactment by the existing Electoral Commission or the existing Chief Electoral Officer and not completed by 1 October 2010; and
(b) any proceedings commenced by or against the existing Electoral Commission, or by or against the Crown in respect of any act or omission of the existing Chief Electoral Officer, relating to an existing right, interest, title, immunity, or duty and not completed by 1 October 2010.
(2) Any matter, thing, or proceedings to which this section applies may be continued, completed, or enforced by or against the new Electoral Commission.

31 Responsibility for reports and accounts of existing Electoral Commission from 1 July 2010
(1) The new Electoral Commission must include in its annual report for the year ending 30 June 2011 the information in respect of the existing Electoral Commission for the period commencing 1 July 2010 and ending on 30 September 2010 that the existing Electoral Commission would have had to include in its annual report under section 151 of the Crown Entities Act 2004 had it continued in existence.
(2) To avoid doubt, the new Electoral Commission may, if it so decides, present the information referred to in subsection (1) in a combined form for the whole of the financial year ended 30 June 2011.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (1), section 45J(1) of the Public Finance Act 1989 does not apply to the existing Electoral Commission in respect of the period commencing 1 July 2010 and ending on 30 September 2010.

32 Consequential amendments

(1) The provisions specified in the following Parts of the schedules of this Act are amended by omitting “Chief Electoral Officer” in each place where it appears and substituting in each case “Electoral Commission”:

- (a) in respect of the principal Act, Part 2 of Schedule 2;
- (b) in respect of other Acts, Part 1 of Schedule 3;
- (c) in respect of regulations, Part 1 of Schedule 4.

(2) The provisions specified in the following Parts of the schedules of this Act are amended in the manner set out in those Parts:

- (a) in respect of the principal Act, Part 3 of Schedule 2;
