Explanatory note

This note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general effect.

These regulations, which come into force on 1 March 2006, amend the Fisheries (Amateur Fishing) Regulations 1986 (the principal regulations). The main effect of the amendments on the principal regulations is as follows:

- regulation 19A is amended to make a drafting correction:
- new regulation 27A is inserted to enable authorisations to take fish, aquatic life, or seaweed for the purposes of a hui or tangi to be obtained directly from a marae committee, Maori Committee, runanga, or Maori Trust Board. Previously (under regulation 27) fishers obtained authorisations from a marae committee, Maori Committee, runanga, or Maori Trust Board acting under a delegation from the chief executive. The new provision enables those bodies to grant authorisations in their own right and provides for the procedure that must be followed when granting authorisations. It also sets out offences relating to the granting of authorisations:

- regulation 27 is consequentially amended to remove references to “hui” and “tangi”, as authorisations to take fish, aquatic life, or seaweed for those purposes are now dealt with under new regulation 27A:
- regulation 29 (which relates to offences and penalties) is consequentially amended to insert a reference to new regulation 27A:
- a new Schedule is added that prescribes the form that must be used for an authorisation granted under new regulation 27A.

Issued under the authority of the Legislation Act 2012.
Date of notification in Gazette: 22 December 2005.
