4 Revocation of this order

This order is revoked on 26 October 2022.

Dated at Wellington this 12th day of September 2022.

Hon Dr Ayesha Verrall,
Minister for COVID-19 Response.

Explanatory note

This note is not part of the order, but is intended to indicate its general effect.

This order revokes the following COVID-19 orders:

- COVID-19 Public Health Response (Isolation and Quarantine) Order 2020:
- COVID-19 Public Health Response (Maritime Border) Order (No 2) 2020:
- COVID-19 Public Health Response (Testing for COVID-19) Order 2022:
- COVID-19 Public Health Response (Vaccinations) Order 2021.

The revocation of the COVID-19 Public Health Response (Isolation and Quarantine) Order 2020, the COVID-19 Public Health Response (Maritime Border) Order (No 2) 2020, and the COVID-19 Public Health Response (Testing for COVID-19) Order 2022 comes into force on 12 September 2022. The revocation of the COVID-19 Public Health Response (Vaccinations) Order 2021 comes into force on 26 September 2022. This order is revoked on 26 October 2022.

The revocation of these orders will remove certain restrictions that were put in place in order to limit and manage the risks of the spread of COVID-19. Those restrictions include—

- isolation and quarantine restrictions for people in managed isolation or quarantine facilities:
- requirements for people arriving in New Zealand by sea:
- specific testing requirements for arrivals at the border:
- requirements that certain types of work be carried out only by workers who are vaccinated.

Approval by resolution required

This order must be approved by resolution of the House of Representatives before the expiry of the period described in section 16(2) of the COVID-19 Public Health Response Act 2020. If this does not happen, the order is revoked on the expiry of that period.

Issued under the authority of the Legislation Act 2019.
Date of notification in Gazette: 12 September 2022.

Notes

1 General

This is a consolidation of the COVID-19 Public Health Response (Revocations) Order 2022 that incorporates the amendments made to the legislation so that it shows the law as at its stated date.

2 Legal status

A consolidation is taken to correctly state, as at its stated date, the law enacted or made by the legislation consolidated and by the amendments. This presumption applies unless the contrary is shown.

Section 78 of the Legislation Act 2019 provides that this consolidation, published as an electronic version, is an official version. A printed version of legislation that is produced directly from this official electronic version is also an official version.

3 Editorial and format changes

The Parliamentary Counsel Office makes editorial and format changes to consolidations using the powers under subpart 2 of Part 3 of the Legislation Act 2019. See also PCO editorial conventions for consolidations.
