7 Revocation

The Minimum Wage Order 2023 (SL 2023/13) is revoked.

Nicola Purvis,
for Clerk of the Executive Council.

Explanatory note

This note is not part of the order but is intended to indicate its general effect.

This order, which comes into force on 1 April 2024, revokes and replaces the Minimum Wage Order 2023.

This order increases the minimum rates of pay for adult workers, starting-out workers, and trainees. The new minimum hourly rates of pay are as follows:

- $23.15 per hour for adult workers (increased from $22.70 per hour); and
- $18.52 per hour for starting-out workers and trainees (increased from $18.16 per hour).

Issued under the authority of the Legislation Act 2019.
Date of notification in Gazette: 29 February 2024.

Notes1 *General

This is a consolidation of the Minimum Wage Order 2024 that incorporates the amendments made to the legislation so that it shows the law as at its stated date.

2 Legal status

A consolidation is taken to correctly state, as at its stated date, the law enacted or made by the legislation consolidated and by the amendments. This presumption applies unless the contrary is shown.

Section 78 of the Legislation Act 2019 provides that this consolidation, published as an electronic version, is an official version. A printed version of legislation that is produced directly from this official electronic version is also an official version.

3 Editorial and format changes

The Parliamentary Counsel Office makes editorial and format changes to consolidations using the powers under subpart 2 of Part 3 of the Legislation Act 2019. See also PCO editorial conventions for consolidations.
