Explanatory note

This note is not part of the order but is intended to indicate its general effect.

This order, which comes into force on 1 April 2025, increases a range of benefits, allowances, asset limits, superannuation entitlements, etc, that are payable on and after that date. The increases reflect both mandatory adjustments and discretionary increases.

Where an annual consumers price index (CPI) increase is required, it reflects the increase of 2.22% in the New Zealand Consumers Price Index from the December 2023 quarter to the December 2024 quarter (calculated for all quarters using the New Zealand Consumers Price Index (All Groups)).

Annual CPI increases are required under section 453 of the Social Security Act 2018 for the following benefits:

- jobseeker support;
- sole parent support;
- supported living payment;
- orphan's benefit;
- unsupported child's benefit;
- youth payment and young parent payment;
- former widows' benefit;
- former domestic purposes benefit;
- long-term hospital patient benefit.

Those increases are set out in Part 1 of Schedule 1.

Annual CPI increases are also required, under section 15 of the New Zealand Superannuation and Retirement Income Act 2001, for superannuation entitlements. Those increases may sometimes be more than the CPI increase to meet the requirements (in sections 15(3) and 16 of that Act) that the increases maintain a specified relationship to the net average wage and also maintain the proportional relationship of specified rates. The total of the increases required by both sections 15 and 16 of that Act are set out in Part 2 of Schedule 1.

The discretionary increases made under section 452 of the Social Security Act 2018 are in respect of—

- certain rates of benefits payable to beneficiaries set out in Parts 6 and 9 of Schedule 4 of the Social Security Act 2018;
- the various asset and income limits that are set out in Schedule 5 of the Social Security Act 2018 for receiving certain benefits and grants;
- certain rates payable to superannuitants set out in Schedule 1 of the New Zealand Superannuation and Retirement Income Act 2001.

Those increases are set out in Schedule 2.

This order must be confirmed by an Act before the close of 30 June 2026. If it is not confirmed, it will be revoked on the close of that date. See subpart 3 of Part 5 of the Legislation Act 2019.

Issued under the authority of the Legislation Act 2019.

Date of notification in Gazette: 27 February 2025.
